SOVIET PEACE MOVES DENIED BY HELSINKI

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 23 — Dispatches from Helsinki today told of unconfirmed rumors there that the Soviet government, acting through Estonia, has proposed peace negotiations to Finland.

The rumors were denied, however, by a high Finnish authority in a telephone interview.

One version said at the suggestion of Russia another power had asked Estonia to mediate in the Russo-Finnish conflict. The U. S. S. R. has a mutual aid pact with Estonia.

Convicted Chief Of Red Party Faces Four-Year Term

FRIENDS IN RALLY

20,000 Hear Bitter Tirade Against Two Officials

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 — Tried, not as a Communist but as a lay citizen charged with passport fraud, Earl Browder, chief of the Red party in the United States, stood convicted today and sentenced to federal prison for four years.

In contrast to the trial of Bund Fuehrer Fritz Kuhn in state court, the trial of Browder was wrapped up and delivered to the jury in something less than four court days, and jury and judge sped it to a conclusion with a 45-minute verdict and an immediate sentence. Browder charged at a Madison Square Garden rally last night that his conviction was the first step towards "harnessing" the American labor movement for participation in the war. He accused Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy of accepting Communist support in the 1938 election in Michigan when he ran for governor but repudiating it when he saw an opportunity to advance to the nation's highest court. Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, of New York, he asserted to his wildly cheering 20,000 followers, owed his election over Thomas E. Dewey to Communist support. The Red party leader accused the Roosevelt administration of attempting to lead the nation into war and discarding the social aspects of the New Deal platform.

DIES TO ORDER ATTACKER INTO HOUSE HEARING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 — Chairman Martin Dies of the special house committee investigating un-American activities today announced that the first act of the committee this year will be to call Rep. Hook (D) Michigan to determine on what evidence "if any" — Hook bases his charge that Dies is friendly to "collaborators" of the Christian Front.

As the house prepared to debate a resolution extending the life of the committee another year with passage assured, Dies branded Hook's allegations a "joke" and asserted that the Michigan congressman's "bluff" will be promptly called.

"Since the congressman from Michigan seems to be playing the Communist game of 'smear and run,' I think it only fitting and proper that Mr. Hook have full opportunity to either 'put up or shut up,'" Dies said.

"As soon as the house reconstitutes the committee I shall immediately propose that Mr. Hook be the first witness before it. "And the second step which the committee will take will be to examine witnesses in New York on evidence showing that the Communist party recently offered $3,250 for a false affidavit purporting to swear that I am sympathetic to the Christian Front."

LEWIS' SPEECH FLAYS HOOSIER

CIO Chief Attack McNutt For Calling Troops In Indiana Strike

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23 — Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt, a Democratic presidential possibility, was described today as "a political adventurer who liked to pretend he was a soldier," by John L. Lewis, CIO chieftain, in addressing the golden jubilee convention of the United Mine Workers of America.

McNutt, who has indicated he will be a presidential candidate if President Roosevelt does not seek a third term, was the only figure in the 1940 national political scene mentioned by Lewis.

The reference to the former Indiana governor was made while Lewis, president of the UMW, was reviewing the history of miners and relating how political leaders of the past had "exploited" them. Lewis' fire was directed at McNutt because, he said, while governor of Indiana he called out troops during a mine labor controversy.

TWO MEN UNDER INDICTMENTS TO ASK OFFICE

ATHENS, Jan. 23 — Two Athens County officials under indictment on bribery charges today announced their candidacy for re-election. They were B. F. Beckler, county engineer, and Ira Whitmore, county commissioner, who together with Walter Maccomb, another commissioner, are charged with soliciting and accepting bribes in connection with county purchases. All are Democrats.

DR. BEN ARNESON RUNS FOR ASHBROOK'S POST

DELAWARE, Jan. 23 — Nominating petitions for Dr. Ben Arneson as a candidate for the unexpired congressional term from the 17th district were circulated by his friends today. Dr. Arneson, however, has made no announcement of his candidacy. The congressional seat was left vacant by the death of the late William A. Ashbrook. A special primary has been called for Governor Bricker for February 6. Dr. Arneson is the head of the political science department at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Helsinki Reports 1,000 Of Soviet Troops Killed In Taipale Sector

NEW AIR RAIDS HINTED

Defensive Lines Holding Up Despite Heavy Pounding By Red Artillery

HELSINKI, Jan. 23 — Soviet legions hammered at Finnish defenses in the Taipale sector of the Carelian Isthmus today after a series of sharp clashes in which at least 1,000 Russians were reported to have been killed.

Advices to Helsinki said the Russians were slain when Finnish troops repelled strong attacks on the Carelian Isthmus and just north of Lake Ladoga.

At the same time it was reported the Russians were renewing aerial activity on the Petsamo Front in the Far North, where they also tried to drop parachute troops without success.

One of the captured Soviet parachutists told Finnish officers that the Russians were preparing to launch even greater air raids than those of the last few weeks, but that they were having serious difficulties with their gasoline supplies.

Warships Icebound

(A Reuters (British) news agency dispatch from Helsinki said that several Russian warships were reported to have been seriously damaged during the recent Finnish air raids against the Soviet air and naval base at Kronstadt. (This report stated that all the Soviet warships are icebound at the Kronstadt base.)

Owners of the vessel announced all 412 passengers were rescued but that a few members of the crew are still missing.

PARIS — Defeat of a German raid on French positions along the Western Front west of the Vosges Mountains was announced today in French War Communiqué No. 283. "West of the Vosges the enemy suffered losses and a raid which they launched was repulsed."

BERLIN — An engagement on the Western Front in which the Allied forces lost several dead and captured was reported by the German high command today.

PARIS — Aged and infirm, now in his eightieth year but still the champion of Polish independence, Ignace Jan Paderewski came to Paris today from his peaceful home in Switzerland and pledged "before God" that his nation would be restored.

UNITY TO BE OPERATED FOR BULLET IN NECK

LONDON, Jan. 23 — Unity Valkyrie Freeman-Mitford, blonde English beauty who won Chancellor Hitler's admiration, entered a nursing home today to undergo an operation for removal of a bullet from her neck. Miss Freeman-Mitford returned home recently from Germany after being shot mysteriously at Atlantic City, N. J.

King Winter Provides Spectacle of Beauty

NOW is the time for King Winter to touch up on his artistic work, such as this sample in Philadelphia. The fountain now serves as a sliding rink for the neighborhood children. A cold

Prosecutor At Duties Early When Its Warm

Now that the cold snap has finally broken, it is a safe bet that George Gerhardt, county prosecutor, will be getting into his office at the County Court House early.

Coming from way out on East Mound Street, Gerhardt found the going pretty tough during cold wintry mornings. He just about froze up.

The natural procedure, then, was to stop at the fire station and warm up at the glow of Chief Talmer Wise's stove. Swapping a few yarns also helped take the chill out of Gerhardt's bones — particularly if they were hot yarns.

Feeling fit, Gerhardt would tackle the second lap of the journey. Although he was buffeted by the cold winds coming out of the West, he finally arrived at the police station. Chief William McCrady's stove is equally inviting.

Another yarn and a bit more warmth and Gerhardt was ready for the final dash across the street to his office. But the cold really got him. So for the first half hour after the prosecutor arrived his office was not opened for business. He was thawing out at the radiator. But another cold snap is on the way.

'BOOKIE' GIVES UP $50 ON CHARGES OF POLICE CHIEF

The city's treasury was increased by $50 Tuesday after Paul Carman of Washington C. H., who operates a racehorse "book" in the Pickens building, South Court Street, failed to appear for a scheduled hearing Monday evening in Mayor W. B. Cady's court. Carman had posted $50 bond for his hearing.

Chief W. F. McCrady who ordered him into court said that he was operating a game of chance. Forfeited also was the $5 bond posted by Clinton Frankhauser, Columbus, for violating the traffic light at Court and Main Streets. Frankhauser, whose hearing was scheduled at 9:30 Tuesday morning, failed to appear before Mayor Cady.

PERSONAL NOTES, CABLES CLAIMED BY JAP FORCES

TOKYO, Jan. 23 — With James R. Young, veteran International News Service manager in Tokyo, still in custody on undisclosed charges, police today seized three bushels of personal correspondence, cables and pictures from his office and residence in the Imperial Hotel.

Young's wife immediately protested to the United States embassy against the seizure, entering the charge of housebreaking.

Intensive efforts were continued to secure his release and ascertain the nature of the charges, apparently based on news dispatches sent by Young at the conclusion of a 9,000-mile tour of China.

STORM WARNING POSTED ALONG EASTERN SHORE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 — The U. S. weather bureau today announced that a storm, attended by increasing northeast or east winds reaching gale force tonight is centered over the Gulf of Mexico and will move northeastward with rapidly increasing intensity. Storm warnings were ordered posted from Cape Hatteras to Atlantic City, N. J.

512 MEMBERS OF NAZI CREW MAY REMAIN IN U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23 — The 512 officers and crew members of the scuttled Germany luxury liner Columbus today faced the possibility of confinement at the Angel Island immigration station for the duration of the European war.

The seamen arrived last week on two special trains from New York and since have been boarded at the federal immigration station on San Francisco Bay — at Nazi expense. Plans to send the men back to their homeland by way of the Pacific and Siberia were given a setback by reports that the British had stopped the Japanese steamer Asama Maru and taken off 21 German seamen being sent back from San Francisco. The 21 were former crew members on Standard Oil Company tankers and were seized by the British as potential enemy warriors.

Probability that all of the 512 now on Angel Island might be similarly captured by the British, if they tried to get back via a Japanese liner, today left plans for their sailing up in the air. Both Japanese and American steamship officials — the NYK and the American President lines — expressed willingness to ship the men on a commercial basis. It was their attitude that whatever happened enroute was not the ship company's business, but that of the governments involved.

BELGIANS BELIEVE THEY BALKED GERMAN ASSAULT

LONDON, Jan. 23 — The London Daily Telegraph reported from Liege today that details of a secret German plan to invade Belgium show the invasion was planned to the minutest detail, even summing up the abilities of Belgian generals as well as surveying weak spots of Belgian defenses. According to the report the German plans were seized from a German warplane which was forced down in Belgium January 10.

After a close study of the plan, said the Telegraph, Belgian official quarters are confident their defensive preparations prevented a German assault allegedly set for the night of January 13.

Manchester Paper Charges War Being Fought For Americans, Too

By International News Service The British have abandoned any hope of getting us into this war — for the present at least.

They are reconciled to the fact that we are going to stay neutral and are taking what they consider appropriate measures.

In other words, the kid gloves are off.

This is not a guesswork conclusion, but the only explanation that presents itself for Britain's attitude toward our ever-lengthening series of protests against British "salt-water arrogance."

London's cultured attempts to obtain our sympathy and collaboration have been abandoned in large measure, and the British are seeking a new situation like that of 1914-1916, when notes of protest shot across the Atlantic with machine-gun regularity.

This step would not have been taken by England if the Anglo-French high command — France was preparing billets and hospitals for American doughboys. Representations from Washington affirming our neutral rights in mails and shipping would not have been rejected out of hand if Britain could foresee our extension of outright aid to the Allies against Nazi Germany.

The history of our recent diplomatic exchanges with Great Britain is strangely like that of the early days of the last World War. Washington protested on December 22 against British interference with American mails to neutral countries.

That protest was answered more than three weeks later, on January 16, and it was a flat rejection. Then came the charge that Uncle Sam's postage delivery service was being used to send contraband into Germany.

Today the British rejected our complaint over the long delays to which American shipping is being subjected at Gibraltar and in the Mediterranean, with the argument (Continued on Page Two)

AKRONITE ASKS OHIO DEM CHIEF TO RESIGN POST

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23 — Removal of Arthur Limbach as state Democratic chairman was demanded today by Harry J. Halper of Akron, candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor.

Halper, who was an unsuccessful candidate for the same nomination in 1938, said that Limbach's announcement that former Governor Martin L. Davey would not be chosen as a delegate to the National Democratic Convention, and Senator A. V. Donahey's immediate repudiation of the announcement created a situation which required Limbach's resignation.

Halper wired Limbach, asking that he resign.

NEW YORK JANITOR, 50, LIVES DESPITE THREE BULLETS SHOT IN HEAD

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 — Physicians were dubious when Salvatore Morriane, 50, a janitor, told them he was still alive after firing three bullets into his head in a suicide attempt.

But X-rays showed Morriane was telling the truth. The X-ray pictures showed two bullets in his head and physicians said a third might be lodged behind one of the others and thus not show in the pictures.

Morriane was still alive today but in a serious condition.

Speaker At Big Convention Advances John Owens For Bricker's Toga

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23 — John Owens, former Guernsey County coal miner and now leader of the CIO forces in Ohio, was advanced as a Democratic gubernatorial possibility today at the opening of the Golden Jubilee convention of the United Mine Workers of America.

In welcoming the delegates to Columbus, birthplace of the miners' union, John Dunn, Columbus newspaperman and president of the city CIO council, discussed the Ohio gubernatorial situation and proposed Owens as a candidate.

Dunn told the delegates he was "sorry to report that Ohio now has a reactionary governor," but declared that he (Gov. John W. Bricker) would "not be in office next year."

"There are a lot of candidates in the field," said Dunn, "but the one name being discussed at every crossroads and in every factory in Ohio for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination is that of John Owens, president of the Ohio CIO."

"He is the man wanted by labor in Ohio. I don't know whether he will accept."

JOHN BULL GIVES UP HOPES THAT WE WILL FIGHT

Efforts To Win Sympathy From Uncle Sam Halted By Isle Empire

Yet the United States government, through no dictates of legal necessity, long ago tacitly agreed to the unprecedented British demand that ships of the mercantile marine clearing from American ports for neutral countries have their cargoes covered by so-called "navicerts." The British claim that we have not been 100 percent cooperative in this regard. Strictly speaking, there is no law that compels us to cooperate at all.

In view of the surprisingly prompt and unfavorable reaction to Secretary of State Hull's latest protest, an editorial in the Manchester Guardian today had an almost strange ring. Britain, this paper said, is fighting this war for America's behalf as well as its own.

Let it be clear that American industry is not benefiting, and our agricultural economy is definitely being injured by British war measures. Britain has virtually wiped out her American tobacco imports. Tommies on the Maginot Line are being abjured to alter the habits of years and "smoke Turkish" to the advantage of Britain's Balkan ally.

The London Daily Mail was more forthright:

"To the United States this is a question of inconvenience. To us it is a matter of life and death."

Closely connected with the present situation, which may well portend a major change in British policy, was the speech of First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill in which he advised all neutrals to get into the fight on the side of England.

It was relayed to this country by radio, and if it was a feeler to the United States, it evoked an immediate response in the form of Hull's protest over Gibraltar.

Perhaps Britain wanted to know once and for all whether we were on one side or the other, and has now learned definitely that we're on our own.

CONTRIBUTORY CHARGES SEND WOMAN TO PRISON

PORTSMOUTH, Jan. 23—Fine of $1,000 and one year at the Marysville Reformatory was the sentence meted out to Mrs. Florence Freese, 42, Hamilton, by Probate Judge Vernon Smith on a charge of having contributed to the delinquency of a minor.

Neil Bradley, 22, Portsmouth cab driver, charged with having driven a 16-year-old girl to Hamilton, will face arraignment in Probate Court Friday.

Relating her story, the girl said that she was taken to a Market Street address in Hamilton on the pretense that she was to receive a job in Cincinnati as a hat check girl at $15 per week.

The girl, when picked up, was wearing an evening gown over her nightgown. She said she escaped from a Hamilton house of questionable repute by leaping to the ground from a second story window.

ever since the war began has been withstanding heavy Soviet artillery pounding and repeated raids. Before the assault began, Russian artillery opened up a terrific artillery barrage, sending shells crashing into the Finnish defenses at the rate of three or four a second.

Military dispatches, however, stated the Finnish lines were holding up under the pounding. The Taipale sector fringes the southern shore of Lake Ladoga.

In addition, these reports indicated, the Finns had thrown back successive waves of Russian infantry attackers, who were unable to gain a foothold in the Finnish lines.

Severe fighting also was reported in sectors ranging from the northern shores of Lake Ladoga to a point some 50 miles further north along the eastern frontier of Finland.

Counter-Attacks Halted

In these regions Russian counter-attacks were hurled back at Kitilae, Loimola and Ilomantsi. In addition to the heavy Soviet casualties, 12 Russian tanks were destroyed.

Some 600 Russians were reported slain north of Lake Ladoga while the remainder of the 1,000 casualties were accounted for on the Carelian Isthmus.

The first authoritative estimate of Finnish battle casualties placed the total at 9,500, including 2,500 killed and 7,000 wounded since hostilities began. Soviet losses were estimated at about 150,000, including killed, wounded, frozen, ill and captured.

with the reactionary lion," said Browder. "Unity has been achieved—and the lamb has been eaten."

False Information Claimed

The charge against Browder boiled to a simple matter of intent. The government charged that Browder, after traveling to Moscow and other places on passports issued under other names, had claimed in obtaining a passport in his own name that he had not previously had a passport. This, the government said, was a crime.

The defense conceded that the Communist chief had "traveled incognito" as a matter of diplomacy in "troubled European countries" but raised several legal objections to the government case.

Sitting for four days, the jury had heard the word Communist used not more than a dozen times. Browder brought it in himself stronger than the government when he told the jury during his argument: "I am secretary of the Communist party and proud of it."

He argued his case well but there was no talking down his own handwriting, his own photograph on the passport applications and these apparently convinced the jury at least as strongly as anything offered in testimony.

Browder, himself, said nothing regarding the jury's verdict. George Gordon Battle, his counsel, held that it was contrary to the evidence but Judge Alfred C. Cox disregarded and commented that it appeared to him to be "the only possible verdict."

A "slip" convicted Browder, government counsel asserted—a four letter slip spelled "none."

HOME ECONOMICS

In Home Economics, most every girl has decided on the three projects she plans to take. We have also started to fill out our project books.

Several girls entered projects at the Institute that was held January 10 and 11.

SOPHOMORE

Billy Wharton, who formerly attended Ashville High School, entered our high school the first of this semester. He is in the Sophomore class and has been competing in the basketball tournament.

SPORTS

So far the Senior boys have not lost an interclass basketball game. They played the Juniors and Sophomores and have won both games by a good score. The players on the Senior team are—Phil Laman, Ralph McCain, Ralph Baker, William Strehle, Gerald Bowman, Jim Brown, and Eugene Reed. They play the freshmen next Wednesday and have no fear of losing the game.

The class teams of Walnut High School have been having a basketball tournament during the noon hour. Next week the final games will be played to see which class will be the winner.

The Sophomore girls are the winners so far.

MUSIC

The Girls Glee Club sang at the Farmer's Institute. The songs they sang were "My Johnny was a Shoemaker" and "The Cobblers Jig".

INSTITUTE

The second annual Institute was held at the Walnut Township High School last week and this one proved to be very much a success. The Young People's Organization seems to be functioning very well. The speakers chosen by this group were very capable and experienced men and women.

F. F. A.

The F. F. A. annual pest hunt closes January 17. The Walnut boys are competing against the Madison boys, the losing team will motley crew of two percent bagmen," asserted the CIO leader. "He hoped he could buy enough votes to become president so he could have more soldiers to play with, and so he could protect strangers from displaced miners whose children were hungry and whose wives were ill."

Lewis called on labor generally to "play an increasing part in the destiny of the republic" because, he said, "if labor fails to play that part, all the rules will be made by those who are exploiters of labor and the policies will be uttered by those who hope to profit."

When he finished speaking Lewis received a prolonged ovation from the 2500 delegates, the cheering lasting until Lewis himself halted it so that the program of the opening session of the two-weeks convention could proceed.

ILLINOIS ENDS HEARING IN HARRY THOMAS CASE

CHICAGO, Jan. 23—The Illinois Athletic Commission has closed its hearing of charges alleged to have been made by Harry Thomas that he "threw" fight to Max Schmeling and Tony Galento, it was announced today.

The commission, after a final session yesterday, said it would announce its findings in the case on Monday, January 29. It also was revealed that the Illinois attorney general's office had completed its investigation of the alleged charges, and had turned all its information over to the attorney general.

WALNUT TOWNSHIP LATIN CLUB MEETING

The Walnut Township Latin Club held its monthly meeting at two o'clock, January 17 at the school house. The meeting was opened by the president Marjorie Miller. Twenty seven members answered the roll call. As there was no old business to discuss and no new business to be brought up, the meeting was turned over to the program committee, which consisted of Dorothy Bumgarner, Betty Huffer, and Louise Clark. Miss Clark acting as chairman of the committee. The first number on the program was "America" sung by the group in Latin. Then a tap dancing duet featuring Jeanne Noecker and Eloise Hay. The group then sang "Adeste Fideles" meaning "O Come All Ye Faithful" also in Latin. A very interesting poem "The Fire of Driftwood" was read by Irene Toole. Following the poem there was a piano solo by Donna Dill. The chairman of the committee then presented some very interesting contests which occupied the students for the remainder of the hour. The club adjourned to meet the fourth Tuesday in February.

Composers And Musical Celebrities Discussed

Monday Club Has Interesting Program

Mrs. Barton Deming presented a paper on "Latin Composers and Musical Celebrities" when Circleville Monday Club met in the Library Trustees' room, Memorial Hall, Monday evening, to continue its study of Latin-American countries, the year topic of the club.

Mrs. Deming opened her paper with the thought, "To the average North American, Latin-American music means a more or less familiar acquaintance with a limited number of Mexican songs." Enlarging on her subject, Mrs. Deming showed how the music was influenced by different epochs in the history of the various countries, and explained the development of the present worthwhile contributions to the world's finest musical literature. She told in detail of the composers and musical celebrities of these countries, the members of the music division illustrating her points with choice selections appropriate to her subject.

In closing her discussion, Mrs. Deming expressed the feeling that music may play an important part in bringing to a closer understanding, the countries of North and South America.

Mrs. James Moffitt sang first the solo, "Ay, Ay, Ay," by Freire, being followed by the Monday Club chorus with the folk songs, "The Evening Breeze" and "Tropic Gardens," by Medoro.

Miss Pearl Marshall's solos were Latin-American folk songs, "The Cabin," "The Cross in the Valley" and "Carnations."

Mrs. John Caldwell and Mrs. Joseph W. Adkins, Jr., played as a piano duo, "Andalusia," by Lecuena.

The Chilean folk song, "Buy My Tortillas," was sung by the club chorus and a piano duo, "Spanish Rhapsody," by Chabrier, played by Miss Abbe Millie Clarke and Mrs. Theodore Huston, closed the enjoyable evening of music and musical history. Miss Clarke served as piano accompanist for the soloists.

Today's Fashion

LITTLE BOLERO dresses, to be worn under fur coats now and to blossom out with furs later, are now being featured by many shops. Here is a smart model of this type. It is of brown sheer woolen combined with gold colored satin. The top of the dress is of satin, joined above the waist with a scalloped line. It has a high, round band neck and tiny self-buttons on the bodice. Skirt is gored into fullness. Bolero has long, tight sleeves, and a scalloped border and lining of the satin, it's charming, too, without the bolero.

Interest Is Growing For President's Ball Jan. 30

Interest in the President's Birthday Ball is mounting by leaps and bounds as details for the entertainment of the evening are told by Joseph W. Adkins, Jr., general chairman of the 1940 celebration, which will be Tuesday at Memorial Hall auditorium.

One interesting feature will be the return engagement of Dale Stevens and his orchestra whose music so delighted the record breaking crowd at the recent Mistletoe Charity Ball.

While the younger members of the social set are shaking out their daintiest formals of chiffon and taffeta, the older ones are planning for an evening of solid enjoyment at the card table, with perhaps a glance at the dancers to see if there is still the thrill in tripping the light fantastic that there was in former years.

Card clubs of the community are planning to have their meetings at this party lifting a routine evening's play into a real occasion. Prizes will be awarded to high score holders of any such club that holds its meeting at the hall on that night. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Larry Athey, phone 446.

DIZZY'S CONTRACT GOES BACK TO CHICAGO AGAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 23 — Dizzy Dean's unsigned 1940 contract was back in the hands of the Chicago Cubs for a second time today. With the contract the pitcher sent Owner P. K. Wrigley a letter which was presumed to list in detail his reasons for believing that a salary slash from $20,000 to about $10,000 would be too harsh.

PURDUE TO FILL OCTOBER 5 DATE ON STATE SKED

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23 — Purdue will fill Ohio State's open football date caused by the abandonment of the sport by the University of Chicago, it was announced today by Athletic Director L. W. St. John.

The Boilermakers will meet the Bucks in Ohio Stadium on October 5, and will make six Western conference games for Ohio. St. John said Texas A. and M. was unable to fill the date because of a game scheduled with U.S.L.A. at Los Angeles the following Saturday.

With Purdue as an opener, Ohio's schedule reads like a nightmare for Coach Francis Schmidt. Besides the Boilermakers, the Buckeyes meet Pittsburgh, Northwestern, Minnesota, Cornell, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

Tubs and Stubs to Play In Olsen Swede Contest

One of the most interesting games of the year from a crowd-pleasing standpoint will be played Thursday evening in the C.A.C. gym as a preliminary to the Athletic Club-Olsen Swede feature. It will bring together the Tubs and the Stubs of Circleville.

Included in the Tub lineup will be Charles (Cream Puff) Glitt, Joe (Baby Beef) Glitt, Dan (Two Ton) McClain, Ray (Hominy) Anderson, Lawrence (Firpo) Hulse, and some others. These five will come close to tipping the scales at 1,200 pounds.
Opposed to them will be Cuz Dum, Ralph Roby, Bill Steele, and several other tiny mites who are expected to run rings around their heavier opponents, but who are expected to fall under one of his competitors.

City League basketball games scheduled Wednesday evening include Wallace Bakery vs Glitt Food Market, Western Auto Supply vs Stout's Pure Oil, Purina Chows vs Caskey Cleaners and Eschelman Feeds vs John Deere Tractors, the night being designated as John Deere Night.

DATES SET FOR TOURNEY GAMES IN DISTRICT A-B

Circleville basketballers will compete in the class A district tournament at Delaware, the event being scheduled for February 27-29 and March 1, 2, 8 and 9.
Class B teams of the county, which will include the winner, runnerup and third place team in the annual tournament, will play at Westerville on February 29, March 1, 2, 8 and 9.
Commissioner H. R. Townsend announced Tuesday that the state tourney would be conducted on March 15, 16 and 17 in the state fairgrounds coliseum. Akron North is defending class A champion and North Canton is titlist in class B.

ASHVILLE SQUAD TO TEST TIGERS TUESDAY AT 8:30

Red And Black Must Stop Gregg And Reese To Win Important Joust

RESERVES PLAY AT 7:30

Visitors Bring Fast Team To C. A. C. For Annual Competition

One of the outstanding basketball games of the season is scheduled for Tuesday evening at about 8:30 o'clock when Al Kauber brings his Ashville varsity to Circleville for the annual joust with Circleville High. The Ashville boys have dropped only two games in league competition this year, New Holland and Pickaway turning the trick. Last Friday the Ashville lads bumped a powerful Monroe Township team on the Five Points court with two long shots in the last minute of play.

Kauber's team includes two of the finest athletes to grace the uniform of the Harrison Township school in many years in the persons of Junior Gregg and Barney Reese, center and guard, respectively. The Tigers have their work cut out for them in trying to stop these two lads.

At the same time the Tiger forwards, Harold Smith and Whitey Davis, are expected to make things hum for the Ashville defensive corps. Walters is potent at all times, and Joe Staley, a former Ashville youth, has started to hit. Bob Bowsher in recent games has been devoting practically all of his time to defensive work.

Kauber has seen Circleville play on at least two occasions, the veteran coach being in the stands when the Tigers took Lancaster and when they lost in an overtime game to Wilmington. If there are any flaws on the Red and Black armor the ex-Capital cage star has found them.

Starting lineups are expected to be something like this:

Circleville
Davis F Swisher
Smith F Cloud
Walters C Gregg
Staley G Reese
Bowsher G Forquet

Officials: Pearce of Ohio Wesleyan and Rush of Ohio U.

A preliminary featuring reserve teams will start festivities at 7:30 o'clock, the C. A. C. gym being the scene of festivities.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE RATIFIES JOHN F. MADER AS NEW CHAIRMAN

POLITICAL UNIT MEETS MONDAY IN COURT ROOM

Vice-Chairman To Be Chosen After Suggestion By Goeller Successor

NEW PROGRAM OUTLINED

Executive Group Approves Open Field For Primary Candidates

The Pickaway County Democratic executive committee, called into session Monday evening, ratified the selection of John F. Mader, East Main Street, as committee chairman to fill the unexpired term of Lawrence E. Goeller, Beverly Road, who resigned last week after nearly four years of service.

Mr. Mader was chosen by a committee of five to fill the vacancy, and the committee's action received official sanction from the entire committee at its Monday meeting. Mr. Mader will serve until July 1 at which time the central committee will be elected in the May primary will organize and appoint the new executive committee, that body choosing its chairman. Clarence Helvering, East Main Street, is the present central committee chairman.

To Name Vice-Chairman

The committee at its next meeting will choose a vice-chairman, a suggestion made by the new chairman.

Mr. Mader said that the committee outlined a program which will be followed during his tenure in office. It includes "cleaner politics, encouragement of candidates who are well qualified, an open field at the primary, more harmony within the organization, an immediate appeal for the support of independent voters as well as Democratic voters, an honest effort to win on our own merits and blaming no other for our defeats."

Mr. Mader said that about 30 committee members were present, the meeting having been conducted in the Common Pleas courtroom.

In the meantime names of many potential candidates for various elective offices subject to the May primary and the November general election are being mentioned. The board of elections has issued numerous petitions, but as yet none has been filed. The next week or two will bring many of the office seekers into the open, political party leaders believe.

USE STARLINGS AS FOOD, URGES CHURCH GROUP

Mount Pleasant Brotherhood of Deercreek Township is continuing its annual pest hunt campaign and today is urging any persons who wish starlings for dinner to notify members who will be pleased to supply any and all needs.

The Ohio Division of Conservation and National Resources hands out the following advice: if you don't know what to do about the starling menace, just eat the bird.

Its meat is delicious, the sportsmen say and starlings are being sold in large numbers as food along the eastern coast during migration periods.

The Brotherhood destroyed over 10,000 starlings in the pest hunt last year along with 12,000 other pests. The pest hunt for which two teams have been selected will extend to April 1, but will be interrupted on February 14 for a turkey supper.

Landons says. But what I'm wondering is what can he say. He knows nothing about national or foreign affairs. I am told he is a nice gentleman, but the country needs more than that in the White House these times. I don't want to prejudice Landon. I shall hear him out, but I have a strong hunch I will not support him."

Borah's premonition was right. Three months later I spent a day with him in Boise as he campaigned for his sixth senatorial term. We had a long talk that night in his room before he retired. I remarked that I hadn't heard him say a word during the day about Landon.

"And I don't intend to say anything about him," Borah replied quietly. "I am not for him."

"Are you for Roosevelt?"

"Well, Robert," he said, "I've got a lot of Democratic friends in Idaho and I think they know where I stand." And then with a gentle smile he added, "That's a pretty good news story, isn't it?"

It certainly was. It was the big scoop of the campaign.

NO HAZING

All the New Deal Supreme Court Justices attended the White House ceremony when Justice Frank Murphy took the oath of office. As the President shook Murphy's hand he observed solemnly: "Frank, I've got it all fixed up for you. The sophomores on the Court have promised me that they won't haze the freshman."

WHITE HOUSE RECEPTIONS

The White House social list is not as exclusive as you might suppose. If you want to be on the list, you don't have to wait to be chosen. All you've got to do is to drive up to the front door and, in effect, tell 'em you want an initiation.

This is strictly according to the rules of the potocot. Nothing brash about it. You come up to the door and hand your cards to one of the White House guards, as if you were going to pay a call. In fact, this amounts to paying a call. And in return, you will get an invitation to a tea, a musicale, or a garden party.

The mechanics of the business are like this: The guard passes your cards to the footman, who clips them together and puts them in a basket inside the door. Secretaries make up a list from them, hoping you have not forgotten to scribble your address on the card so they will know where to send the invitation.

The list goes to Mrs. James M. Helm, efficient social secretary of the White House, who does a little

ELKS HOSTS FOR BIG MEETING TO BE HELD FEB. 14

At a meeting of lodge officers and house committee members Monday evening, Circleville Elks started to make preparations for one of the biggest meetings they have ever been asked to conduct. It will be on Wednesday, February 14, when Newark and Portsmouth lodges, two of the biggest in the state, come to Circleville for Visitation Night, a state association function.

Circleville had originally been scheduled to entertain the Newark lodge, but cancellation by the Gallopis lodge of its scheduled entertainment of the Portsmouth club forced a change in state plans, so Circleville was given Newark and Portsmouth.

It is probable that each of the visiting lodges will send from 50 to 100 Elks to Circleville. Paul D. Miller, exalted ruler of the Circleville lodge, is in charge of arrangements for the evening's festivities and is working now on special committees to handle various phases of the program.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

culling of the names she and associates cannot identify. Then the invitations go out. You have in effect asked for an invitation—and got it.

EXCLUSIVE PARTIES

Of course, the invitation will not be for an evening reception, for which the lists are more official and exclusive. To rate a reception, you have to be a diplomat, a member of Congress, a departmental executive, a high ranking officer of the Army or Navy (officers below the rank of lieutenant colonel and commander are excluded), or, as a last chance, a member of the press.

On a still higher plane of exclusiveness are White House dinners. Formal dinners are given in the state dining-room for visiting rulers, such as the King and Queen of England; and others, less formal, to which an odd miscellany of people are invited—church dignitaries, newspaper editors, social planners, and campaign contributors.

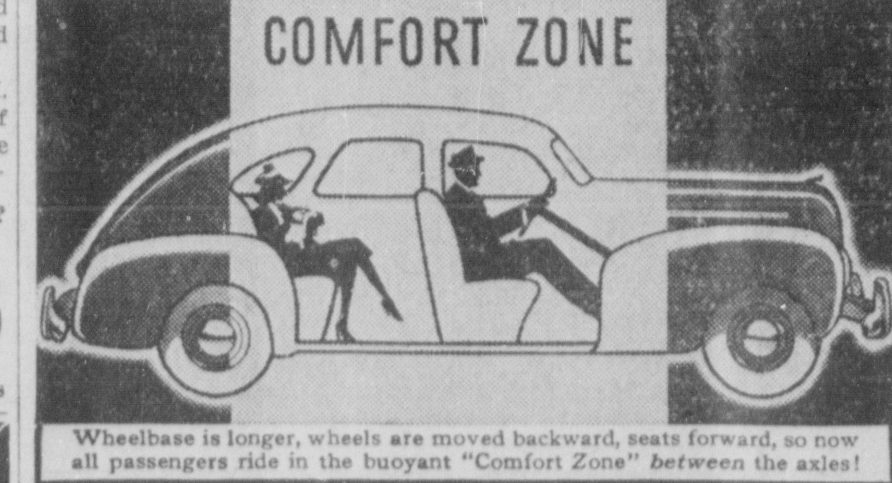

Most intimate Roosevelt dinners are held in the family dining-room, especially the Sunday evening suppers, where Mrs. Roosevelt prepares scrambled eggs in a chafing dish for people she can call by their first names—Henry and Elihu Morgenthau, Henry and Ilo Wallace, Caroline O'Day, Sam Rosenman, Oscar Chapman, "Missy" LeHand.

Intimate or otherwise, there are always guests at the White House. If the President and Mrs. Roosevelt should find themselves alone at the dinner table, they would scarcely know how to behave.

EMPLOYERS WHO OWE STATE MAY EVADE PENALTY

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23—Ohio employers who owe contributions to the state under provisions of the unemployment compensation law still have an opportunity to save themselves money if they make payments at once, H. C. Atkinson, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, said today.

Fourth quarter of 1939 payments were due January 1, the administrator reminded. In cases where such contributions, and delinquent payments for earlier quarters of last year, are not made by January 31, 1940, employers will not be eligible to receive the full 90 percent credit on their excise taxes, and they will be required to pay eight percent interest on over-due contributions.

Payroll tax under the Ohio law is 2.7 percent. The Internal Revenue code levies a 3 percent tax. However, employers who are subject to both federal and state unemployment compensation laws may deduct the 2.7 percent from the 3 percent, provided state contributions are paid on or before January 31. Employers liable, generally, in Ohio are those who have had three or more workers in their employ during some part of a year in 1939.

There are approximately 53,000 "liable employers" in Ohio, according to bureau records. Payments should be made to the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, Atkinson said.

HERBERT SENDS VOTE OBSERVER TO CHECK POLL

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23—Simon Leis, Cincinnati, has been sent to Steubenville as an "observer" for Attorney General Thomas J. Herbert in the mayoralty election contest there, it was announced today. A suit asking that the election of Mayor James T. Welsh, Democrat, be set aside on the grounds it was obtained fraudulent voting entered its fourth week in Jefferson County common pleas court yesterday.

Herbert said Leis is "under no instructions" and is to "report back" at the conclusion of his period of observation of the Steubenville case. Suggestions have been made that a special grand jury investigation be conducted by the attorney general into the alleged election frauds. However, such an inquiry can only be made upon orders of the Governor.

The Steubenville action was brought by Charles E. Baker, defeated Republican mayoralty candidate who asked that Welsh's election be set aside.

The Irish sweepstakes have been abandoned, according to a cabled dispatch. Why, we don't know, unless the chances of an immediate peace in Europe offered greater odds.
